BRUBAKER COAT OF ARMS

SYMBOLIC MEANING OF THE BRUBAKER COAT OF ARMS

The Brubacher Coat of Arms was secured in Switzerland by Dr. Albert P. Brubaker of Philadelphia when on a visit to that country. It had as a title, "Famille Brubacher," and was a black and white print. A brief statement on family insignia in general, and of the Brubaker Coat of Arms in particular, follows.

A coat of Arms is an heraldic insignia originally embroidered on a tabard, or short coat, worn by knights over armor. They originated in the days of chivalry, when they were used to distinguish individuals whom it was difficult to recognize when in full armor. The favorite emblem of the knight later became the adopted badge of the family.

The Brubaker Coat of Arms is marshalled and shows a blending of two or more coats of arms to form one composition. This composite is the result of family alliances. The upper part of the emblem came from the husband's side of the house, that at the bottom from the wife's family. The outstanding insignia is the unicorn, which is symbol of knightly honor, purity, protector of virtue, cure for all kinds of diseases, antidote for all poisons. Its selection was probably due to honor bestowed upon a doctor of feudal armies. The unicorn at the top rests on a wreath of twisted silk, the number and color of twists show family connections and rank. The lower unicorn is in the same position or attitude—that is "Rampant," and means the same as the upper except that it has a shield as background and is standing on the mountain, thus representing lordship of clan, or chieftain.

The branches and leaves of Acanthus both at the right and the left symbolize children or branches of the family. The pendant around the peer's helmet is an indication of rank bestowed for service as a peer. The strop at the bottom was obviously used like a belt to hold the coat in place over the armor.

The Brubaker Coat of Arms reproduced by Clair V. Runk by permission of the Eastern Pennsylvania Brubaker Association. OKed by Phares Brubaker Gible, from History and Genealogy of the Brubaker. Brubacher, Brewbaker Family of America. (Volume I). Also all of above information taken from same book.

HISTORY OF THE EARLY BRUBAKER'S

The Brubaker Family resided in the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland. Zurich Lake, one of the principal lakes in Switzerland, is chiefly in the Canton of Zurich, but partly also in Schwyz. It forms a long irregular curve, bending round from southeast to northeast, convex on the south and concave on the north side; greatest length, about twenty seven miles, greatest breadth, two and one half miles; greatest depth four hundred sixty nine feet. Its scenery is distinguished not so much for grandeur as for beauty. The mountains around, nowhere exceeding one thousand and seven hundred feet above the lake, which is itself one thousand three hundred forty two feet above sea-level, commerce in wooded heights and descend to the water's edge in gentle slopes, covered with vineyards, orchards, gardens, cultivated fields and verdant meadows, and studded over with country seats and smiling villages.

The Abraham Brubaker Family arrived in America on the ship "St. Andrew" on the ninth day of September one thousand seven hundred forty nine. They settled in Clay Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Phares Brubaker Gibble gave permission to reprint the above information from the book, History and Genealogy of the Brubaker, Brubacher, Brewbaker Family in America (Volume I).

REV. CLAIR RICHARD TROUTMAN

Sensing the Call of God to the Christian Ministry, in 1957 Clair began to prepare for that vocation. In February of that year he enrolled as a freshman in Albright College, in the northeast section of Reading, Pa. There he majored in History, and minored in Sociology. While here he became a member of K.T.X., a honorary pre-ministerial fraternity and for one year as its Vice-President. He also headed up a committee which carried on much deputation work in Central and Eastern Pennsylvania. Upon graduation in June, he will proceed to further training in a Seminary.

He was licensed to preach by the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Red Lion in May 1959. He supplied Mexico charge in Juniata County, Penna. and at present is student pastor, serving Union Circuit in Union County, Penna.

"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" — Philippians 4:13
